

Conflict of Interest Statement—VoComp 2007 ¹

1. (for non-competitors only) Do you feel you have a possible conflict of interest in evaluating any of the competitors? If so, please list and briefly describe such possible conflicts. In particular, please include possible conflicts as defined by the National Science Foundation for grant review panelists (e.g, past or present academic advisor, collaborator within past two years, family relationship, financial relationship). See <http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2002/form1230p/form1230p.doc>

None.

2. At this time, I am a Board member, a committee member, or an employee of the following organizations.

Board member: Technical Advisory Board of Fortify Software, Inc., and Cranium Solutions
Committee member of the Office of the California Secretary of State's Voting Systems Technology Assessment Advisory Board and the Office of the California Attorney General's Electronic Recording Delivery Act Advisory Committee
Employee of the University of California
Consulting for Florida State University on a study of a Diebold system

3. I disclose below any employment arrangement or agreement, investment, or contract in which I have been involved at any time since January 1, 2004, that involved or included any voting equipment manufacturer or vendor, or election reform advocates, which has resulted or will result in personal financial benefit to me or financial benefit to any of the following types of entities Paragraph A: voting technology manufacturer(s), developer(s), and/or service providers.

In 2004 I participated in the RABA study of Diebold systems for Maryland; the report is available at <http://nob.cs.ucdavis.edu/~bishop/notes/2004-RABA/index.html>. In 2006-2007 I participated in the FSU/SAIT study of ES&S iVotronic systems for the State of Florida; the report is available at <http://nob.cs.ucdavis.edu/~bishop/notes/2007-fsusaait/index.html>. In 2007, I participated in the FSU/SAIT review of Diebold systems for the state of Florida; the report is being written. I received financial compensation for these studies.

I am also one of the principle investigators in California's top-to-bottom review of electronic voting systems, in my capacity of a professor at the University of California. I have also written papers and conducted studies as part of my employment.

4. I disclose below my receipt, directly or indirectly (including through the entities listed under paragraph A), of any salary payments, loans, or gifts of any kind or of any free service, discounts, or other personal financial benefit, from any person or organization engaged in any election reform efforts or from any voting equipment manufacturer or vendor at any time since January 1, 2004.

None.

5. I disclose below any funding or other support I have received, directly or indirectly, for research or other activities from any person or organization engaged in any election reform efforts or from any voting equipment manufacturer or vendor at any time since January 1, 2004. Funding provided to one of the entities listed in response to Paragraph A should be included in the disclosures below.
